

We are Capable

by Sheila Giardina

We have come to create heaven on earth. We can accomplish this as we believe, all things are possibilities. When three or more come together, all is reachable. When using right actions in all aspects of our lives, it will happen sooner.

Letting go of the past and making room for miracles will allow what we desire to happen. Just like magic. God gave us a life to achieve anything we desire. It is totally up to us when and where. I believe we can. I believe we can within our social interactions and in our homes etc. Behind all that is visible, there is the invisible power. The invisible power of the mind. I have a belief; I believe greatness will come from our thoughts and our words.

By feeling it and believing it, we will achieve!
